

Spot the Jobs...

While you're out and about, use the boxes below to list all the different jobs you see people doing. You could go for a walk down your local high street, your local supermarket, or a big shopping centre.

--

--

--

--

--

--

--

--

--

--

--

--

Spot the Jobs...

When you get home, sit down and draw some of the people that you saw doing different jobs. Write down their the job title and include details such as what that person does, where they are working and why you think this job would be fun.

